Dear Dr. Burleigh,

In January I unearthed in the genealogical material I gathered last summer your note of the Pringle information you wanted.

I'm not positive any I found are the ones you want because of slight discrepancies in dates - not knowing if you meant the town of Fairfield or the County, etc. The Prindle Genealogy is very thick and rather poorly organized. Only 300 were printed. I hope some of the enclosed information is what you need. On the chance you might know the parents of the Pringles you wanted, I copied all the male Pringle marriages listed in the seven volumes of Early Connecticut Marriages by Bailey.

By any chance do you know about the 12 children of Benjamin Herow and Martha Wiggins? From the Canadian Census I got many Herow families I could not trace back. I think many of them are probably children and grandchildren of Benjamin and Martha Wiggins Herow. If you have them listed I'd appreciate a copy. On an enclosed sheet I copied what the census says about Hezekiah Herow in 1851-2 and 1861-2. Several things about it puzzle me.

Sincerely,

Mildred M. Smith

Gerow Family Association Holds Reunion

The Gerow Family Association held its 18th annual reunion at Deyo Assembly Hall, New Paltz, on Saturday, July 26, 1969. It was the second meeting of the Family Association under the roof of the Huguenot Historical Society, New Paltz, New York, Inc.

The luncheon was attended by 35 people at 2 p.m. Mrs. Lathrop, Mrs. Burke, Mrs. Hasbrouck and members of the Huguenot Historical Society staff took care of the preparations for the luncheon. Members of the family group put on a covered dish luncheon.

Mr. Crosby Wilkin, president of the Family Association, opened the meeting with a prayer at 3 p.m. The flag salute was led by Kenneth Hasbrouck of the Huguenot Historical Society.

In the absence of the secretary and the assistant secretary, Miss Lorraine Olinger read the minutes. One correction was made — the roof of the Meeting House at Plattekill was painted, not the building. Otherwise, the minutes were accepted as read.

Mr. Daniel Gerow of Connecticut, the treasurer, read the report. He noted that there were 70 paid members and that the balance in the treasury was now $680.80. The balance last year was $96.70. Money has come in for dues, maintenance, genealogy, and endowment. The report was accepted and filed.

The matter of having two accounts was discussed as it will be necessary for the group to have a checking account and a savings account. It will also be necessary to have a separate endowment account. Money from those who give toward the endowment may not be spent. Only the interest on such monies can be used each year. The matter was tabled for the time being. Future funds donated will determine what has to be done during the year.

Mr. Wilkin noted that he and Mrs. Norris had worked with the committee from the Friends Meeting in Poughkeepsie in order to gain title to the Plattekill Friends Meeting House. It was discovered that the deed had never been recorded. When this is done and the Friends Meeting has prepared a deed to the Huguenot Historical Society, New Paltz, N. Y., Inc., the matter will be completed. The Gerow Family will be the group in charge of financing the building. The Friends Meeting made two restrictions: The building may be used by them for meetings if necessary and if the Huguenot Society and its family group (Gerow Family Association) fail to take care of the building, then it would revert back to the Friends Meeting.

The Plattekill Meeting House was vandalized last winter. Windows were broken and doors were battered in (the panels broken). Discussion took place as to how the building could be better protected. Mr. Hasbrouck suggested a light on trees in the yard to the east that go on automatically when the sun goes down. Another suggestion was made that windows and doors be repaired and an effort be made to protect them from further damage.

The Plattekill Grange has aided the group by donating money. This was used to paint the roof. Funds left go into the Gerow Family Association. The Plattekill Grange should receive a letter of thanks for its help.

Mr. Wilkin called upon Mr. Hasbrouck, president of the Huguenot Historical Society, who had requested time to make a few comments.

Mr. Hasbrouck noted that all the family association dues were raised to $3.00 for 1969. The extra dollar would go toward meeting maintenance costs on the street. Mailings, the newly created library in the LeFevre House and other items made it necessary that the family members would have to assist. The headquarters and library are used by all members.

The Gerow Genealogy was making rapid progress. Mr. Hasbrouck and Mrs. Lathrop have prepared charts; the people are all on cards, and the various branches of the family have been placed in folders. Many branches were never compiled. Many of the Gerow women's lines have been completed in other family genealogies such as: Garrison, Purdy, Hasbrouck, Birdsall, etc. One of our members who is of a branch newly discovered is the Most Rev. R. O. Gerow, Bishop of Mississippi. Over 100 people have responded to our past letter. It would cost about $3,000 to publish the Gerow Family in America. It could be done by offset method and the cost would be defrayed by subscription. It is amazing how the family has spread out and how well many of them have prospered.

The coat of arms was discussed. Mr. Hasbrouck told how the other eight families had their arms checked by the heraldic specialist, Mrs. Clare McVickar Waró of New York City. She makes a complete report to the family on the authentic arms to be used by our branch in America. After this, when all are satisfied, she does a master coat of arms in full color. This costs $150. Then it goes to Virginia where it is reproduced (separation of color process) and at least 500 are produced. They are sold for $5.00 each. It is not only a necessity for the family, but also a profitable venture for the Family Association.

Following discussion, Mr. Wilkin, Mrs. Norris, Mrs. Allan and Mr. Hasbrouck will work toward having the arms authenticated. It seems to be generally accepted that the old arms as used by the Gerows is the right one. This will be checked.

The group decided that they would like to have their luncheon meeting much as it was done this year in 1970.

The same group of officers were elected for the year of 1969-70. They are: Crosby Wilkin, president; Jennie Sears, vice-president; Daniel Gerow, treasurer; Dorothea Gerow, secretary; Kenneth Hasbrouck was appointed as genealogist; Miss G. Lorraine Olinger and Mrs. Frances Gerow Lathrop were appointed to a membership committee.

Following a closing prayer, the group went to the Plattekill Meeting House. Mr. Sutton took a photograph of the group. Following a survey of the building, Mr. Wilkin called a meeting in the church. It was decided to get the windows repaired, put heavy wire on them and to have the sill on the east side of the Meeting House replaced. From that point, each item would be taken in its priority according to finances. Mr. Garrison has offered aid to fix the windows; Mr. Hasbrouck offered panes of glass; and Mrs. Allan offered to have two chairs repaired. A few items were taken to New Paltz for safe keeping.

A House and Grounds Committee was appointed consisting of Mr. Wilkin, Mr. Brundidge, and Mr. Garrison.

Following a prayer, the group disbanded at 6 p.m.

Dear RMD,

My husband and I are thinking of going for a week,
the middle or end of August,
to the southern coast of Maine
around Rockport of Oginquit.
What I want to know is — will there be such a range of temperature that we will have to take both "hot and cold"
clothes? I hate to take a car full of luggage for such a short trip, but am not familiar with this region. Can you tell me? XX

Dear XX,

Good question. From our experience and that of friends,
the weather around Rockport
should be about like the Cape
in August, warm in the day
and cool in the evening.
Slacks, shorts, cotton dresses,
sweaters are the order of day
and night. Maybe a silk dress or pretty print and one of those new fringed shawls for dinner and evening strolling.
Rockport has many attractive places to stay, from modern motels with swimming pools
to old mansions converted into Inns. Many are on or near the water front. You will want two swimming suits and good cover-up beach coats or robes
—terry cloth really the best.
The water is cold.

Topcoats? Yes. Or one of those all-purpose rain-andshine coats. The quilted nylons are weather-proof and light weight, perfect for day or night. Navy blue the best.

from shoes and boots to sailor

Dear Friend-

I am sorry but you don't owe me anything as on the Richards as I have done little on it but first I am going to see our Twp clerk and see if he has anything on John C. Richards when he was Clerk of Ameliasburg Council 1860-68. and anything further that he may be able to give me, and I don't mind being in your debt.

I am sending along a list of Gerows that I copied from the Dom. Census and it would appear Henry Gerow was the one mentioned in The Loyalists of N.B. which I now have, thanks to you for the address. I have worked on them some and a old man now dead this year gave me the location of the first Gerow house that his g-father had told him about and of the ruins that he had a faint memory of and on a check of a map it would be in the area of land now marked Gerow Gore. As long as I can remember the Gerows have been around this part of P.E. in Ameliasburg, but I don't think they are the same Gerow's as I have kind of a family tree made out by a Stanley Gerow (once of Rossmore) now of Cleveland Ohio (He is a graduate of Queens & also his son.)
